Name: Not available
 Charges & Description: Two men aged 51 and 57 who were in the business of illegally hunting and selling protected Amur tigers were detained as a result of a lengthy joint operation by the regional FSB security service and specialists from the Amur Tiger Centre. They were caught moments after getting 700,000 roubles (US $6,834) cash for selling pelts, fangs, claws and bones of two Red Book Amur tigers to a buyer from outside Russia. Names of the men and the details of the operation were not fully disclosed, but it was understood that the buyer was likely to be based in China. The poachers faced charges under article 258.1 of Russian Criminal Code, illegal poaching and trade of Red Book animals, and could serve between five and seven years jailtime.
 Place of Arrest/Seizure: Russia
 Date of Arrest: 4-11-2020
 Item Seized: red book amur tiger
 Number Seized: 2
